CONGRATULATIONS, Peter Can Coops, son of Deputy Health Officer and Mrs. Harold Van Coops, who has been appointed to the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs! Story next week.

SORRY TO HEAR of the death Saturday of Mrs. James B. Turner, mother of Albany's Administrative Officer Jim Turner. She lived in Floydada, Texas.

MARTY WEBB reports a growing list of celebrities who will participate in the Third Annual Jubilee Saturday, May 11, at Thousand Oaks school. They include Supervisor Joe Bort, Wilmont Sweeney, John DeBonis, Senator Nick Petris and a late entry, Albany Mayor Dick Clark.

ABOUT THAT, Council Monday night directed our mayor to participate but to omit the poems. Clark was recently presented with about 4,600 worms as a result of last year's contest. He explained he had come in third or fourth. "I'd hate to think what would have happened if you'd come in first," Councilman Lew Howell cracked.

LOTS OF wailing around town last week when they started cutting at the tree in front of the Red Barn on San Pablo. Calls were received at the Police Department, City Engineer's office and the Times. One man even wanted an editorial protesting the move. New owner of the Red Barn, Bill Challas, explains they merely removed some lower branches so their sign is visible. He checked it and it looks O.K. to us.

BOB DENNIS will be guest of honor at a retirement dinner Friday, June 7, at the Colombo club in Oakland. Recent experiences with surprise retirement dinners are shown that not everyone who has wanted to go knew about the Freeman dinner May 17 and Dennis dinner June 7 will be made public. More information after on Bob's dinner. Half the committee and the honor guest himself will perhaps hear about now for the first time.

THE PARKING ENFORCEMENT vehicle looked unusually last Friday with a big pink bow on the roof. The decoration was to inform everyone that Jo-

Where are Maid Candidates Contest Deadline is Friday

Historically, girls enter the Maid of Albany contest at the last minute.

Historically, the deadline for entering is extended.

If you are thinking about entering and are waiting until the last minute and/or an extension, you may be disappointed because 5 p.m. Friday, May 13, is the positive, final, absolute deadline. To date, there are no girls entered. Chairman of the contest, James Bates stated, "Unless there is an active interest shown in the contest by the girls of Albany, there will be NO contest."

Albany Jaycees, who have planned a gala evening and many prizes for the new Maid, are crying a lot as days pass and no lovelies enter the contest.

There are many prizes to be won, and a valuable experience to be gained.

This year the contest will be May 18. The Albany High school Little Theater is the setting, and 8 p.m. is the time. The judges have not yet been announced.

Candidates must be 17 years old by Aug. 21, 1968, and no older than 23 by the same date. She must be a resident of Albany or attend Albany High school, and she must have a mailing zip code of 94706.

Applications are available at Albany Chamber of Commerce, 1108 Solano or the Albany Times, 1240 Solano.

Passes Available For Races Thursday

Five hundred grandstand passes for tomorrow's Albany Day at Golden Gate Fields are now being distributed by the Chamber of Commerce, 1108 Solano Ave., and Albany Times, 1240 Solano.

Post time is 1 p.m.

State Scholarship Award Winners Here

Five from Albany are among 1968-69 State Scholarship Award winners, the California State Scholarship and Loan commission has announced.

Local winners include Linda A. Brown of 1011 Talbot Ave., Presentation; Laurel L. Egenberger, 518 Stannage, Merritt; Norman W. Laufenberg, 1046 Ordway St., St. Mary's; Kenneth L. Potter, 511 Evelyn Ave., Albany; Michael C. Shea, 953 Ventura Ave., St. Mary's.

Scout Tupperware Party Friday Night

Mothers of Senior Girl Scout Troop 1194 are holding a Tupperware Party in the Social Hall of Albany Methodist Church, Stannage at Marin, Friday, May 3, at 7 p.m. There will be games, prizes, and the opportunity to get Mother's Day gifts.

The girls of the troop will serve light refreshments. Proceeds will help the troop on its way to the Hawaiian Islands in August of this year. Leadership of the group is in the hands of Mrs. William Perry and Mrs. Arnold Pope. Sponsors are members of Albany Lions club.

What Council Did Monday

Here are high lights of Albany City Council meeting Monday night:

SET a work session with the Civil Service Board last night regarding Police Chief Ralph Jensen's recommendations to promote Sgt. Carl Lindh to inspector; Officer Mel Boyd to sergeant and name John W. McGonigle as probationary patrolman.

ACCEPTED Inspector Vern Freeman's notice of retirement as of May 15, directed a resolution be prepared commending him.

VOTED to expend $207 as city payment for the ABAG 1970 census preparation with $600 to be paid by Housing and Urban Development commission; to accept the administrative officer's recommendation to accept the deed from the State of California for property connected with the Buchanan Street right-of-way; to refer to the budget committee a request from the Veterans Affairs commission for $125; to try to get a 15-minute film on the California Bicentennial celebration in 1969-70; to set a work session with Planning and Zoning commission concerning a letter from Eugene C. Johnston on seemingly indiscriminate issuance of home occupation permits.

AUTHORIZED the mayor to proclaim May 22 as National Maritime Day and to represent the city at the Third Annual Frog Jubilee at Thousand Oaks school May 11.

REFERRED to the administrative officer an application for CATV franchise.

SET May 27 as the date for a public hearing on violations of Ordinance 67-015 concerning dismantling of wrecked cars.

HELD OVER one week passage of the ordinance establishing Masonic Avenue Undergirding district.

ADJOURNED at 8:45 in memory of Mrs. James B. Turner of Floydada, Texas, mother of Albany's Administrative Officer.

CANHC

The fourth annual May meeting of California Association for Neurologically Handicapped Children will be held Thursday, May 2, at 7:45 p.m. in the auditorium of Children's Hospital of the East Bay. The program will be "Summer Fun for the NH Child."

Albany Honors Myrtle McLean Myrtle McLean Arrives

MYRTLE J. McLEAN, who has retired after 41 years of service to the City of Albany, sits at her desk in the Council chambers at City Hall beneath Albany's official city flag. —Larimer Photo.

Albany's longtime City Clerk, Myrtle McLean, was feted at a Recognition Dinner, sponsored by Inter-Club Council, at Goodman's Hall in Jack London Square April 19.

Nearly 220 friends and business associates attended the affair, which was a surprise to the honor guest in the sense that she had expected a gathering of perhaps 25 to 30 people.

As Mrs. McLean arrived, everyone was standing and singing "Hello, Myrtle," to the tune of "Hello, Dolly." She was escorted to the head table (one of two head tables) by George and Bette Rhodes.

The stage was decorated with an outside chair, indicating the size of the vacancy Myrtle will leave in City Hall when she retires, and attractive signs made by Fire Chief Gerald Browne.

Joe Dagna was master of ceremonies. Invocation was by the Rev. Patrick Finnegan. Mayor Richard O. Clark and Senior Councilman Lewis Howell spoke of the honor guest's many contributions to the city.

Presentations to Mrs. McLean were made by representatives of the VFW auxiliary, Soroptimist club, American Legion auxiliary, Alberito Business and Professional Women's club, Native Daughters of the Golden West, her swimming club, Inter-Club Council, guests at the dinner, Alameda County Board of Supervisors, California State Senate, Albany Municipal Employees association, Radio Station KABL, which made her "Citizen of the Day" April 19, and her grandchildren, Susan and Terry Mathis of Walnut Creek.

Among those participating were Stephen Parkans of the VFW; Jane Stamps, Soroptimists; Margaret Hanahan, American Legion auxiliary; Edith Sheriff, Alberito BPW; Grace Colatori, Native Daughters; Joe Dagna, Senate resolution on behalf of Senator Lewis Sherman; Supervisor Joe Bort, Supervisors; Sigrid Oakley, the swimming club; May Ellis Olson, chairman of the dinner committee check for $300 from those attending; Bette Rhodes, AMEA president, resolution signed by all city employees; Mayor Clark, resolution signed by the Council, and Inter-Club Council President Al Thorogood, plaque naming Mrs. McLean as Albany's "Distinguished Citizen of 1968."

The plaque read... "for her continuing interests in civic betterment of Albany and 41 years of unselfish dedicated service to our city. This award is presented with gratitude and appreciation of the citizens of Albany and the business community."

Flowers for the dinner were a gift of American Florists.

A surprise climax to the dinner was the appearance of the 75-member Albany High school band wearing their red uniforms. They sneaked in through a side door and formed behind closed curtains. When the stage curtains parted, they were playing. The band and the director, Ernest Douglas, came to the dinner by (Continued on Page 3)

Fire Department Takes No Chances In Cat Rescue

Some time ago a Fire Department rescued a kitty from a pole and then gaffed the whole bit by running over it as the truck departed.

Last Thursday, Albany Fire Department raised a ladder and retrieved a cat from a pole amid applause from assembled citizens.

This all had a familiar ring to Capt. John Hoeth. He decided to take no chances. Looking under the truck, he was horrified to see the rescued cat huddled behind the wheel.

Another rescue was effected, thereby saving the cat's life a second time.

WELCOME

In the office of South San Joaquin Irrigation district before coming to Albany in 1925. In 1927, she was appointed to a two-week job in the assessor's office.

She worked on the City Charter for Albany, which she still thinks was passed in too much of a hurry and needs revision, and after it was adopted in April, the city needed a court clerk. She was appointed to that position and as deputy city clerk, jobs she held 14 years before she filed for and was elected City Clerk in 1940.

In addition to serving as city clerk, she has been city auditor, city assessor and registrar of vital statistics. Until the Council hired James B. Turner as administrative assistant in 1961, Mrs. McLean prepared the city budget each year. She has conducted city elections for 28 years, including two recall elections, three referendum elections and one initiative election.

She is a charter member of Albany Soroptimists, American Legion auxiliary 292, VFW auxiliary, Native Daughters of the Golden West and Albany Municipal Employees association and is a member of Alberito chapter of BPW. East Bay chapter of City Clerks association and Governmental Accountants association.

Until five years ago, she lived at 907 Curtis, but when that property was needed for the new Safe way store on Sojano, she moved into a new home at 613 Evelyn Ave.

She has a daughter, Mrs. Jane Mathis, and two grandchildren, Terry and Susan Mathis, all of Walnut Creek. The grandchildren had a part in the Recognition Dinner April 19 when they carried out a treasure chest containing honors for Mrs. McLean.

Myrtle says her employment by the City of Albany has been an exciting time and she has seen many exciting things. One of the milestones was moving into the new city buildings two years ago after a heartbreaking succession of defeated bond issues to build a new Civic Center.

During her time in office, the population has increased from 8,000 to almost 18,000, number of city employees has doubled, Golden Gate Fields, University Village and Western Regional Laboratory were built and the open land and farming operations fairly common here in 1927 have been replaced by a modern city of homes.

Mrs. McLean plans a trip to Alaska in late May. Meanwhile, she is filling in as Albany's first Council-appointed city clerk until screening of 16 applicants is completed and a new clerk is named.

She plans to remain in Albany, to keep up with her various club affiliations and her regular Friday night swimming group.

HOPE TO GET the full story, but Bill Dowling was honored by University Villagers Saturday on his 22 years as manager of the Village. There was so much going on last Saturday, we couldn't make it to everything.

COULDN'T FIGURE out how to work it into the story, but Policewoman Sigrid Oakley paid Myrtle McLean a lovely tribute during the Recognition Dinner. Noting that "when Myrtle saw a need, she filled it," Sigrid said that the honor guest had acted as police matron for the City of Albany between 1927 and 1939. Sigrid looked all over for a police badge No. 1, could find none, so substituted a miniature "police chief" badge, which she presented to Myrtle.

Register Children

Both polio and measles (rubeola) immunizations of each kindergarten child are now required by California law. No child can unconditionally enter kindergarten next fall unless he has had these immunizations. Verification of the dates a child received polio and measles (rubeola) immunizations must be presented. However, if a child has had measles, immunization for this disease is not required.

University Village children of kindergarten age who will be living in the Village next year should be registered at Vista school. All other Albany children of the legal kindergarten age should register at their neighborhood school.

Parents who have questions concerning registration should call the superintendent's office, 526-6441.

JEROME BLANK REALTY

Absolutely Immaculate!

You'll fall in love with the softly carpeted interior of this neat 2 bedroom stucco home on Santa Fe near Marin. With a modern kitchen and tile bath, garage plus workshop area and patio, this home is well worth its $25,500 price. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

Sweet Suite!

The master bedroom suite plus adjoining bathroom is absolutely stunning, but the new electric kitchen will absolutely short-circuit you, with its convenience and beauty. This 3 bedroom, 2 full bathroom home is a MacGregor on Key Route Boulevard in Marin school district. Priced at $26,500, only $2,650 will make this yours.

All Dolled Up!

This home has had it! We mean, a complete redecorating, inside and outside, a new kitchen, 2 new bathrooms with colored fixtures, central heat—the works. Yet it's still priced at just $24,500, far below comparable homes. Vacant, it's ready for immediate occupancy on your qualifying for the loan. $2,450 down gives your family an opportunity to really start living. In fine Albany Hill location, 1 block to Vista elementary school. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

Owner's Dilemma!

This 3 bedroom home plus rumpus room with 2nd fireplace, barbecue, sliding glass doors to secluded patio, should sell in the neighborhood of $27,500 according to comparable sales in area. It needs painting, sprucing up, and a little glamorization. The problem: Should owner allow to remain listed at $25,950, a really good value, but home doesn't show well, or should he spend $1,000 to make it worth $27,500. The person with the best solution could win the grand prize—ownership of this home. Evenings, Mr. Freels, 525-4001.

Spacious Spanish

A lovely on Ordway near Terrace Park, this 2 bedroom home has many exciting extras, including paneled breakfast room, nice garden. Best of all, at $22,500 it can fit your budget easily. Possible $22,500 down. Evenings, Mr. Headington, 524-7796.

Near St. Ambrose

Lovely duplex with 2 modern 2 bedroom units, Cornell Ave. Shows well, rents well. Full price $29,000 with terms arranged. Evenings, Mr. Freels, 525-4001.

Flexibility Plus!

Wait until you see this really lovely Albany home in that fine neighborhood on Evelyn near Solano Ave., and Albany Hospital. With 5 1/2 spacious rooms, including 2 extra large bedrooms, large dining room, plus separate breakfast rooms, this home is absolutely delightful. Wait—there's a plus feature. A brand new studio apartment below opening onto a delightful patio, with lovely living room, new kitchen and bathroom. Ideal for 2-family living or in-law apartment. Possible rental as this is zoned for 2 families. Full price a moderate $33,500. Evenings, Mr. Williams, 526-3819.

Democratic Club
 Plans Fun
 Party May 11

Albany Democratic club is planning another of their "Fun Fund-Raising parties," to be held Saturday, May 11, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The scene of the action, this time, will be the attractive rumpus room and patio of the Ed
 Howe home, 827 Talbot Avenue, Albany, formerly owned by Michael Fahmle.

Ed and his wife, Lucille, have generously opened their residence to the club, and are assisting co-chairmen Bundy Andreani and Dorothy McCain Elsenius with the plans.

Other club members assisting will be: Club President Mike Palmer and his wife, Laurie,
 Imogene Simpson, Mary Tyler, Duane Chapman, Bob Elliott and Jim Dinsmore.

For a $1 donation, you will be entitled to your choice of liquid refreshments, selections from a lavish buffet, dancing, many, many door prizes, and much interesting conversation.

Among political figures expected to attend will be: State Assemblyman Nick Petris, former Assemblyman Byron Rum-ford, John George, Albany Mayor
 Richard O. Clark, Vice Mayor
 Hubert Call, Albany City Councilman Joe Carlevaro, Wilmont Sweeney and Assemblyman John J. Miller.

The public is cordially invited.
 Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Albany Democratic club, or will be available at the door the night of the party.

Veterans with less than one year of college can get work-study positions.

 Third in
 B of A Contest

Ann Hulbert, Albany High school senior, won third place in the Bank of America Achievement Awards, designed to recognize and honor seniors with evidence of future leadership.

The faculty chose Ann to represent AHS last February as the most promising student in vocational arts. At the annual awards assembly she will receive a plaque for her activities and grades.

Ann won third place judged on her scholastic achievement, citizenship, cooperation in group discussion, logical thinking and articulation of English.

Poetry Reading
 Friday, May 3

The second in a series of monthly poetry readings at Albany Public Library will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, May 3, and will feature Victor Turks and Marilyn Cadogan.

Turks is currently at work on a novel which has received enthusiastic acclaim from Kay Boyle. Miss Cadogan has published her poetry in a new paperback, "Eight Berkeley Poets."

At the first in the series April 5, two Bay Area poets, Jerry Burns and Richard Tagett, read their own work with Creeley-type comments to the audience.

Burns, editor of "Goliards" magazine, has published four books of verse. Tagett began the program with several love poems written in 1962, which should be published soon.

'Bedazzled' Now At Albany Cinema

"Bedazzled," a 19th Century Fox's impish comedy, with three of Britain's brightest and most impudent stars — Peter Cook, Dudley Moore and Eleanor Bron — and Hollywood's Raquel Welch heading the cast, is the current attraction at Albany Cinema. Filmed in Panavision and Deluxe color, the comedy was produced and directed by Stanley Donen, whose most recent production was 20th's acclaimed "Two for the Road."

The anti-establishment satire, based on a story by Cook and Moore, was written for the screen by Cook, with the musical score composed by Moore. Brendan Gill of the New Yorker magazine called it "the intellectual's 'Hells' apoplin'—the funniest picture I have seen in ages." And Judith Crist of NBC-TV's Today show described it as "the thinking man's comedy of the year! Utterly delightful."

"Bedazzled," set against the background of today's swinging London, projects irreverent and provocative satire of the type that delighted Broadway and British audiences in "Beyond the Fringe," of which Cook and Moore were authors and stars.

The story revolves around the experiences of a short-order cook, Moore, who invokes the aid of the Devil, Cook, in an attempt to make it with the waitress in the restaurant, Eleanor Bron, whom he adores. In his search for happiness, Moore meets the Seven Deadly Sins, including Lust, played by Raquel Welch.

Of the production, producer-director Donen says, "Bedazzled" is being described as a modern version of the classic Faust theme. It's true that in the film we have a contemporary Devil granting his victim seven wishes in return for his soul, but we mustn't press the similarity beyond that. Goethe's Faust is a deep intellectual probing man's predicament. Our "Bedazzled" takes a farcical approach. Nevertheless, it has intellectual integrity. Good and evil, their interrelationship, are still the main themes, as they were in Goethe's.

Line Officers Party for Chapter 550

Albany chapter 550, Order of the Eastern Star, will have a line officers party May 3 at the Albany Temple, 533 San Pablo Ave., at 8 p.m.

Line Officers are associate matron, Clytie Berley; associate patron, Lowell Keith; conductress, Stella Noe; associate conductress, Johnnie Grisham.

Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron Tilda and Fred Cameron will be in charge of the meeting.

Druceleia Hobbs, past matron, is chairman for the evening. Maxine McGrath, past deputy grand matron, will be in charge of the refreshments. Visitors welcome.

Foreign Language

Evening courses in Italian, French, German and Spanish are offered by the Albany Adult school. Enrollment is now open to all interested adults. Although the instructional emphasis in the language courses will be upon conversation, the essentials of grammar will also be stressed.

Spanish classes meet Monday through Thursday evenings with levels of instruction ranging from beginning to advanced. Beginning French is offered on Wednesday nights with students of intermediate or advanced ability meeting on Thursdays. This quarter the German class meets on Monday and Wednesday evenings and would be most helpful for students with intermediate language skills. The beginning and intermediate Italian classes use a "language laboratory" and meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

All foreign language classes last from 7 to 10 p.m. and meet at Albany High school, 603 Key Route Boulevard. For further information, call the Albany Public schools at 526-6441.

LETTERS

(Opinions expressed in Letters to the Editor are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the Times. This newspaper reserves the right to edit letters to suit space limitations or to eliminate material which might be considered libelous.)

Editor, the Times:

This can be called an answer to "Open Letter to Albany" published in the March 6 issue over the signature of Mrs. Anita Tronoff.

By the time you read this, Mrs. Tronoff, you will have been initiated into the Mystic Order of Forryism. You will not wear a purple robe nor will you sit at the right side of the exalted one.

However, if you are obedient and humble yourself before the master, you will learn all the secret signs and passwords of this mystic order and become a willing worker in the vineyard of Allah the anointed one.

Never doubt the words of he who rules you. Those who serve him know this lesson well. Never say nay lest you be scorned and cast into outer darkness.

Never question his plea for much money. His coffers must be filled to overflowing regardless of the peons who must endure without complaint.

No one is trying to destroy education. However, there are many who would like to know just how economically funds are spent. The taxpayers have a right to know just how and where their money is going.

The State Senate has before it Assembly bill AB 159, called the Tax Relief Bill, designed to take care of the schooling of children in University Village. If it gets an amendment showing real tax relief, the Governor just might be glad to sign it this time. He did have a plank on this in his campaign.

Speaking of funds, you might ask the Mighty One why he had $300 to spend on lobbying this bill but accomplished nothing. Ask him how Mayor Clark and the State Junior Chamber of Commerce were so successful in pushing it through.

Ask him just why he is so opposed to placing the 35-cent on the ballot for deleting from the city tax roll and why it should not be an honest tax cut.

Is he afraid he will lose something from the gravy train? I think the people would really like to know.

There are other questions to ask and will be asked later, but I doubt that you are strong enough to endure the penalty.

Your letter was so perfect in high-sounding sentences that surely you must have had it passed by the Holy One.

RALPH G. BUCKWALTER

Editor, the Times:

I read in the 4/17 issue of the Times that there was another plea by a citizen for the 35-cent city charter school tax to go on a ballot. I attended the April 1 council meeting when this was discussed by Council and School Board members. I did not see that particular citizen in the audience so I would like to state my impression of this meeting publicly to him and to everyone else.

We could vote to eliminate the 35-cent school tax from the city charter but our tax rate would not be lowered by 35 cents because the Council plans to keep this money for sewers, etc., as stated at the 4/1 meeting and not give us taxpayers relief.

On the other hand, it has been stated publicly that this city charter school tax provides funds for seven or eight elementary school teachers. The school district would have to ask for a 35-cent tax increase to cover such a loss of funds. Should this go to a vote to decide, I would like to see them decide TO TRIM the 35-cent rate from the city charter tax rate to the level of the School District tax rate, assuring the quality program we have in ALBANY, VIRGINIA, DENVER, 741 Spokane

Hart-Volheim Wedding

Capt. and Mrs. Dean Volheim
(Cheryl Hart)

Cheryl Diane Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Hart, and Army Captain Martin Dean Volheim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex C. Volheim of Albany, exchanged marital vows recently in Bethany Presbyterian Church in Tacoma, Wash. A reception followed in the social hall of the church.

For her wedding, the bride wore a full-length gown of de-lustered satin with lace applique, which she had designed. The gown had elbow-length sleeves and an inverted "V" in the front skirt, which extended to the floor. A chapel length train extended from the shoulders. In her hair, the bride wore a head-dress of satin roses and pearlized leaves. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, which he brought from the Orient. She carried a white Bible with hyacinths.

Miss Veronica Resch was maid of honor and bridal attendants were Miss Janice Hurst and Miss Virginia Volheim, sister of the groom. They were gowned in gold and green frocks accented by hyacinths in their hair. Each attendant carried a lighted taper surrounded by white hyacinths.

Capt. Elwood Tauscher, Fort Bragg, N.C., was best man. Seating guests were Capt. Richard Larsen, Capt. Bradford Master-son, Wayne E. Hart, Jr., brother of the bride, and Sgt. John Skittlethorpe.

Fellow officers of the bridegroom supported an arch of sa- bers at the foot of the chancel steps following the military ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hart chose an ivory suit. Mrs. Volheim was gowned in a celery-colored wool suit with mink collar and matching hat. Their flowers were green orchids.

Guests from California included Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moore and son, David, of Sunnyvale, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Eaton of Albany.

The bride is a senior at Tacoma General Hospital School of Medi- cal Technology and will be gradu- ated from the University of Pu- get Sound in June. Her husband, a graduate of Albany High school and University of San Francisco, is stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple lives in Tacoma.

Demo Women Fete Author

Helaine Dawson, author of the recently published book, "On the Outskirts of Hope," will relate her experiences in teaching and reaching Ghetto youth of the 17 to 22 age group.

The book had excellent re- views in New York papers, the San Francisco Chronicle, Co-op News, etc. Two interviews on TV station KQED were interest- ing.

Mrs. Dawson worked in the Manpower Development Program at Hunters Point, San Francisco. Learning to communicate with young people and motivate them to fit into the mainstream of so- ciety is the success story of the book. Miss Dawson is a dynamic speaker, inspiring and entertain- ing. The Berkeley Women's Democratic Forum sponsors her talk and invites the public to hear her Thursday, May 9, at North- brae Community Church, 941 The Alameda, at 1:30 in the after- noon. Tickets at the door.

Susan E. Koser Is Engaged

—Jagoda Studio

ENGAGED — At a buffet din- ner party in their Albany home, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Guarischi announced the engagement of their daughter, Rosemary, to Robert Edward Blaylock, Rob- ert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blaylock of El Cerrito. He is a teacher with the Rich- mond Unified School District. He attended El Cerrito High school and graduated from Cal- ifornia Polytechnical State col- lege at San Luis Obispo. Rose- mary attended Albany schools and was graduated from San Francisco State college. She now teaches first grade at Bay- view school in the Richmond Unified School District. A June wedding is planned.

The engagement of Susan Eliz- abeth Koser to Lt. Stephen Lewis Lease (USAF), son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Lease of Long Beach, has been announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wil- liam J. Koser.

A psychology major at the Uni- versity of California, Susan will graduate this June. On campus she has been active on the Pel- lean magazine and also a council member of the UC Honor Stu- dents' Society.

Her brothers are Jim and John Koser and she is the granddaugh- ter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Burton of Walnut Creek and Mrs. William J. Koser, Sr., of San Francisco.

Steve is presently on a tour of duty in Tucson, Ariz., having re- ceived his BS degree in Business Administration from UC last June. He previously attended Long Beach City College where he belonged to Alpha Gamma Sigma honor society.

The bridegroom-elect prepped at David Starr Jordan High school in Long Beach while his fiancée is a 1964 graduate of Al- bany High.

Summer Day Camps Being Planned by Rec Department

The Albany Park and Recrea- tion Department is again orga- nizing Summer Day Camps. Be- ginning June 17 and running for five consecutive weeks, boys and girls ages six through 12 will meet Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The Day Camp program at Me- morial, Terrace and University parks will provide a great variety of activities for both boys and girls. Opening ceremonies will include the flag raising, callis- thenics and low organized games followed by athletic school for boys. The girls will be super- vised in games, crafts, singing, dancing and "girl talk."

The program will furnish punch daily for all children but parents are advised to pack a bag lunch as children are not allowed to leave the park during this break. The afternoon will have a variety of fun and educational activities, arts and crafts, super-vised swimming each Friday, cook-out on mid-week special events day, and specially selected group activities. Boys and girls will be divided into age groups so that in most instances the older children will participate in more adult activities.

Each Tuesday the children will leave by chartered bus for an all-day trip away from the parks. We go to such places as the San Francisco Zoo, Naval Air Station, Steinhart Aquarium, Tilden Park, Moss Beach, Coca Cola plant and Giants baseball game.

Each child will have his own prepaid insurance plan which
